SALE OF PAINTINGS .- The remainder of the paintings at the corner of Broad and Church streets were sold on Saturday evening by Messrs. Leitch & Bruns. The bidding was lively, and prices ranged higher than at previous sales.

CORONER'S INQUEST .- Coroner Whiting held an inquest yesterday over the body of Patrick McGinnis, who was found dead in his bed on James' Island. There were no marks violence on his body, and as he had retired the evening previous with a severe congestive chill, the jury returned a verdict of death from that cause. The

THE BLACK BOY .- The statement made that "the managers of the State Fair" borrowed Governor Scott's fountain boy is not correct. The fact of the matter is, Mr. A. Y. Lee borrowed it, without the knowledge of the Executive Commit tee, and painted it white for the use of the Fairthis being done before the buildings were turned over to the society.

THE STEAMSHIP SARAGOSSA.—This superior steamship, for several years past a favorite on the route between this port and New York, has lately been thoroughly overhauled and put in superior with new boilers, and her hull has been refitted and placed in condition to give the utmost facility and security to passengers and freight. The Saragossa belongs to the Leary line, and is consigned to Messrs. Ravenel & Co.

& Murray's Circus was crowded at both performances on Saturday. The acting was unques tionably superior to most of these entertainments, as the entire programme was mirth-provoking, and the funny man possessed more originality than is usually found in his class. The tent was folded during the night, and the company silently sped away to visit other localities and gather a harvest of greenbacks.

Friday the ginhouse of Dr. E. M. Gregg, in upper Salem, about seven miles from Maysville, was burnt, with seven bales of cotton in the seed and Johnson and some freedmen, and was uninsured. The fire was in all probability caused by a match or gun cap in the cotton, then being ginned. The freedmen worked nobly, saving all the surrounding buildings, which, from the intense heat and the violence of the wind, were for some time in FIRE.-About three o'clock yesterday morning the loud booming of the alarm bell grated on the ear and caused firemen to leave their beds instanter. The fire was discovered in the grocery store of Mr. M. B. Reagan, at the southwest corner of College and Calhoun streets. The upper portion of the building was unoccupied, and as the houses in the neighborhood were all of wood and old tinder boxes, it was with great difficulty that the firemen confined the flames to the store and adjoining building. The property was owned by Alderman Holloway, and was uninsured. Mr. Reagan had $1800 insurance in Colburn & Howell's agencies. Great credit is due the colored Gremen for the able manner in which they coped with the fames.

SURVIVORS' STATE CONVENTION .- The Survivors' Convention, which, as has been previously mentioned, will meet in this city on the 18th inst., will be quite an interesting event. Delegates will b present from a number of districts, and among to se expected are Butler, Kershaw and many others known to fame, if not to fortune. As a compliment to these distinguished visitors, a supper will be given in the evening at the South Carolina Hall, which, from the character both of the hosts and the guests, will doubtless be one of the most brilliant amiles of this very brilliant season. The following gentlemen compose the committee of arrangements: Colonel Edward Mc-Crady, Jr., Captain G. H. Moffett, Alex. W. Marshall, Jr., Major T. G. Barker, James G. Holmes, Jr., Geo. D. Bryan, Roswell T. Logan.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING-ANOTHER WARNING To Boys .- On Saturday morning a fatal accident occurred, which should be a warning to all persons handling firearms. A party of boys, full of life and spirits, with a day's holiday before them, started up the road, on Saturday morning, gunning. When near the Race Course all left but two, Juo. Hogan and Lawrence Ryan, who continued on their way. Ryan observed a wounded bird in a ditch and jumped down to secure it, but failed to do so until Hogan had placed the butt of his gun upon it. In removing the gun the trigger caught in a brier and the load was discharged in the unfortunate boy's throat, just above the chest bone. He exclaimed, "Lord have mercy on my soul," and fell forward on his face, dying al most instantly. The bleeding was internal, and the body was not disfigured by the accident, Coroner Whiting held an inquest, and a verdict was returned in accordance with the facts

SCOTT'S CONSTABULARY .- The squad of State constables, armed with Winchester rifles, who were sent to Sumter 17 Governor Scott, arrested about twenty of the most respectable citizens on a charge of being concerned in the recent incendiary fires in that county. One of the gentlemen was very ill and never went out at night. The persons arrested were taken to Sumterville. Orleans. and the ball of the most responsible persons in the village was refused. With great difficulty acceptable ball was obtained, and the prisoners were released. The constables on Saturday went back to Columbia. For one case of arson in Sumter, said to be the work of white men, there have been six which are charged to the Radical negroes. No good man attempts to justify incendiarism, whatever the provocation, but Governor Scott has set his mind on having trouble, and on A. B. Crane, Berkley, Mass.; Jno. Nettles, Northinducing the the freedmen to burn out the white people, and will issue proclamations and send out constables until his object is accomplished.

COME TO GRIBF .- Our readers will remember Bergman, two adventurers, who endeavored to Barston, New York; Dickson Kirby, Sumter; R. S. swindle our citizens. Their Savannah victims were in their cases. Appearing before the Court they entered a plea of guilty to two indictments for cheating and swindling, and threw themselves upon the sacrey of the court, which the court extended, and in consideration of all the facts, sentenced them to pay a fine in one case of one hunfive dollars, or four months at the same employment. THE MASONIC FAIR OPENS THIS EVENING. The fraternity have been untiring in their efforts to outdo all previous Fairs, and the ladies have proved invaluable coadjutors in the tasteful decoration and tempting arrangemement of the tables. On Friday and Saturday fair fingers were busy manipulating evergreens and hanging wreaths and garlands. The tables are ranged on either side of the hall, and are surmounted by arches bearing the name of the lodge and connected by others, on which are inscribed Masoni mottoes. They were constructed by C. W. Styles, and are placed in the following order, commenc ing at the door on the north side: Union Kilwin ning Lodge, No. 4; Landmark, No. 76; Strict Observance, No. 73; St. Andrew's, No. 10; Solomon's, No. 1; Friendship, No. 9. In the centre, against the stage, are the tables of the Chapters and Commandery; on the south side, commencing from the stage, are Friendship, No. 9; Orange, No. 14; Washington, No. 5; Tyre, No. 136; Franklin, No. 96 and Pythagorean, No. 21. The centre of the hall will be occupied by Walhalla and LaCandeur Lodges, the soda water stand and Jacob's well. correspondent in Maysville writes that "on last The two tables of Friendship Lodge, on either side of the stage, are for refreshments, and a gor geous bill of fare is promised. The Radicals and the Workingmen.

CHARLESTON, November 13. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. How, in the name of Heaven, can the workingmen expect aid from the champions of Pillsbury and his clique, who have scattered the Democratic members of the poice force, and Democrats of every other department over which they have control, with as little feeling of humanity as the four winds of heaven scatter loose dirt over ou mother earth. And thus for a Radical who is the advocate of these suckers of public pap, to brazen ly tell a lot of honest workingmen that our rights own tried and trusty men, is too much for any honest men to swallow. His excuse was, becaus they were watched. They need watching. They have filled every place within their gift with Radicals and turned out Democrats. It is Radical watch Radical. And when they come with their tax book and cry "stand and deliver," then alone are we eye-witnesses to their outrages in a financial way.

If this Radical champion be a friend of the working man, why didn't he advocate the cause of the Democratic policemen who were shifted from the force, and their places filled by inexpe rienced men? The workingmen must and will or ganize for their own protection, but they do not ntend to be led on by incendiaries, who would make capital of us for their own selfish and greedy purposes. To-day our State would have been prosperous i it had not been for these men, who were howling through the woods and fields, hunting the colored man to tell him something about the "forty acre They are the men who have paralyzed our differ ent trades, and as long as they are among us our prospects for prosperity lie far in the future.

I know the president who presided at the meeting of Friday to be upright in his connection with it, and in fact nearly all the officers, but there is at least one wolf among the sheep. Let the workingmen inquire, if they have an official among them who pretends to represent any Union, and ascertain whether he is in good standing in his A WORKINGMAN. own Union.

Colored Conservatism

TO THE EDITORS OF THE NEWS ave recently noticed several attacks made upon our action in forming a club for the purpose of tak ing care of our own true interests, and releasing our city from the rules of these Radicals. We are all natives of Charleston, and have all our lives known our own people, and are well aware that their prosperity is ours. We are not adventurers who have come here only since the war, whose only hope of making a living lies in political exeltement and an unquiet state of society. And the party who has attacked us through the Mission ary (9) Record, the so called Reverend R. H. Cair himself, is only one of the same adventurers al luded to, brought forward here only by politica disturbances, like mud from the bottom of a disturbed pool. His barefaced hypocrisy is well known to all of the colored men of Charleston and although calling himself a minister of the Gospel, his wilful falsehoods prove him to be more properly a minister of Satan. Now we have undertaken to aid the white me of our native city in releasing it from the clutches of the convicted felons and unprincipled adventurers who are now dragging us down, and all w ask for is the support and countenance of our own white men in our undertaking. Most of us are well known by most of the respectable people of our city, and a defence from such attacks as those in question is necessary only to prove that we are trust that our trespassing upon your column will be considered in that light.
